

Study fair for working adults

KUALA LUMPUR: In a time of economic uncertainty and a tightening job market, one of the options is to go back to school.

Working adults looking to further their education are the target of the PostgradAsiaLive! Education Fair which opens at the Kuala Lumpur Convention Centre on June 27.

Now in its fifth year, the two-day fair will feature 60 exhibitors.

This year, 18 local higher learning institutions will participate, eight more than last year.

They include Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia, Universiti Tunku Abdul Rahman, Universiti Putra Malaysia, Universiti Malaya, Olympia College, Sunway University College and KDU College.

Foreign institutions that are taking part include University College Dublin, University of Portsmouth, University of Sunderland, Oxford Brookes University and Newcastle University.

Seminars will be held during the exhibition where visitors will be able to obtain expert advice on the field of their choice.

There will also be a special booth giving information on financial aid and scholarships to those looking for funding for their studies.

Those who are unable to attend can chat with exhibitors at the event's "virtual fair".

For more information, log on to www.postgradasia.com.