

UPM Bintulu Library Division team during the handing-over of the aid to the representatives of the affected families.

UPM Bintulu team delivers assistance to Kampung Sungai Plan Lot fire victims

BINTULU: Seven families from Kampung Sungai Plan Lot in Kidurong, who lost their houses in a fire last Saturday, were presented with food and other items by a team from the Library Division of Universiti Putra Malaysia (UPM) Bintulu Campus.

The donations, which included disposable diapers, baby formula, clothes, school supplies and toys for the children, were handed over by Noraini Turkey, the head of the Infaq Perdana Project under the UPM Bintulu Library Division.

"We hope this contribution would ease the burden of those affected by the disaster," said UPM Bintulu Library Division head Awang Ahmad Faizi Awang Dahlan.

He also said in conjunction with

Ramadan, the university hoped to carry out more corporate social responsibility programmes to help the underserved communities here.

The fire last Saturday razed two double-storey wooden houses occupied by the seven families.

No injuries were reported among the 26 members of the families.