UPMKB's 'Juh Sungkei Ramadan' fosters sense of gratitude in campus community

BINTULU: The Registrar's Office of Universiti Putra Malaysia Bintulu Campus (UPMKB) hosted a 'Juh Sungkei Ramadan' session with UPM vice-chancellor Datuk Prof Dr Ahmad Farhan Mohd Sadullah, in connection with the month of Ramadan.

The breaking-of-fast event saw UPMKB members bringing food and beverages for the potluck themed event at the UPMKB Islamic Centre recently.

During the event, UPM also handed over Raya donations to 30 'asnaf' (tithe recipients) students.

Additionally, copies of the Quran together with other religious books were also donated the UPMKB Islamic Centre.

"This event reflects commitment and responsibility towards the community, and fosters a culture of gratitude among the campus community," said UPMKB in a statement.

The event started with religious teacher Sabirin Ato reciting verses from the Quran in observation of this year's 'Nuzul Al-Quran' (Revelation of the Quran).

Following that, members of the congregation broke fast together, and then performed their Maghrib prayers.

Those attending later performed Isyak prayer, followed by 'tazkirah' (religious talk) session delivered by Ahmad Farhan, and then Tarawih prayer.

Also present at the break-of-fast event were UPMKB director Prof Dr Shahrul Razid Sarbini and UPM Cooperative chairman Dr Dasrilsyah Syahrial.
