

Bringing the experts together

ELS LANGUAGE Centres Malaysia in collaboration with Universiti Putra Malaysia (UPM) presents the inaugural International Conference on English Language Learning (ICELL 2013) where Malaysian and international experts in the field of English language instruction will come together to share and exchange ideas throughout the two-day event.

It will be held at the Auditorium of the Faculty of Educational Studies, UPM, Serdang, on Nov 15 and 16.

Towards better teaching results

ICELL 2013 provides a common platform for English language experts from Malaysia and other countries to promote effective English language learning through competent teaching.

At ICELL, ideas, innovations and teaching practices can be exchanged to achieve better results in English language instruction. It also allows researchers and teachers to forge stronger professional relationships and discuss challenges and opportunities arising from teaching a technology-savvy generation of students.

ICELL 2013 will feature renowned English Language Teaching (ELT) experts from Malaysia, the United States, the United Kingdom and New Zealand.

Key speakers include Datuk Noor Rezan Bapoo Hashim, Carolyn Graham, Paul

Cookson, Valerie Bloom, Stan Cullimore, Dr Jonathan Newton and Dr Andrew Ng.

The theme, "English in Action", aims to share practical and innovative ELT methods via a variety of intriguing plenaries and workshops that will be invaluable for language practitioners, scholars, researchers and decision makers alike.

Open platform for language experts

One of the highlights of ICELL 2013 is providing an open platform for English language experts to present their opinions and findings.

Registration for ICELL 2013 can be done via the official ICELL website (www.icell.my) or by manually filling in the form, which can be obtained from the website or e-mail info@icell.my.

The fee is RM180 per presenter/participant, inclusive of lunch and tea breaks on both days. Accommodation is not included.

With a platform available for English language aficionados to share opinions and teaching techniques, ICELL 2013 is an event not to be missed by teachers, lecturers, interested university students and publishers.
