

Badminton body gets five new appointees

KUALA LUMPUR: Badminton Association of Malaysia deputy president Datuk Mohamad Norza Zakaria is among five new appointees to the National Sports Institute (NSI) board for the 2013-2015 term.

The 47-year-old Norza, who is also the Kuala Lumpur Badminton Association president, was appointed NSI chairman by Youth and Sports Minister Khairy Jamaluddin.

NSI is an agency under Khairy's ministry.

Also making their debut are Sekijang MP Annuar Abd Manap, Executive chairman and founder of KAT Technologies Sdn Bhd Datuk Khairul Anuar Mohd Tawi, former director of Sports science at NSI, Prof Dr Teoh Heng Teong and founder and senior partner of Kuala Lumpur Sports Medicine Centre Dr Saw Khay Yong.

Meanwhile, existing board member, Assoc Prof Dr Shamala Subramaniam, who is a lecturer at Universiti Putra Malaysia's Faculty of Computer Science and Information Technology was given an extension for another term.

The other eight members of the 14-person board will be announced by next month.
