

Sharing to inspire

UNIVERSITI Putra Malaysia (UPM) recently organised the Serdang Heritage forum in conjunction with the UPM Alumni Day celebrations, to commemorate the history of the research university's establishment and its success in producing graduates in various fields and expertise.

Alumni Centre director Assoc Prof Dr Mansor Abu Talib, said that the Alumni Day was a highlight on the university's calendar, and facilitates the sharing of experiences and expertise by the alumni with UPM students and future UPM alumni."

He added that, in keeping with the event's motto 'With Knowledge We Serve', the various programmes held for the Alumni Day aimed to bring alumni back to the university.

The Serdang Heritage forum managed to attract 200 participants, discoursing on the journey of UPM alumni in receiving and generating knowledge at university level. The panellists were former deputy

UPM alumni shared their experiences at the Serdang Heritage Forum.

vice-chancellor (student affairs) Dr Idris Abdol; (UPM Alumni 1970); Amos Ng architecture CEO at Amos Ng (UPM Alumni 2000), and managing director of Ritz Ranch Sdn Bhd & Axiera Ritz Sdn Bhd, Nizam Khosim

(UPM Alumni 2006). The forum was moderated by the Fifth College principal Dr Amini Amir Abdullah. "It is hoped that the passion shown by UPM's alumni will inspire UPM students present and future," he said.