Their cry ‘to fight till the end’

SILVER WIN: There was no room for self-doubt, says Pandelela

Silver at the Rio Olympics has not been anything but good for Pandelela Rinong and Cheong Jun Hoong. They showed incredible resilience and steady determination to bounce back from Tuesday’s disappointment.

A key person may have suffered injuries over confidence on Tuesday.

The build-up to the Games had been anything but good for Pandelela, as the doubt regarding her medals continued to seep through. But the 23-year-old did not allow herself to be distracted by the criticism from others.

‘I was not sure whether I would be second place from the other pairs, but I told myself that I had to fight. said Jun Hoong, who was in tears following their performance.

I told myself that every day is a reason for our success. ‘When we realised that she was doing well, Jun Hoong, said his Congratulations, ‘and she was very happy to win the silver medal for the country,’ said Pandelela.
