

Back to the diving board

She did the impossible, beating the world's best divers to win the gold medal at the World Aquatics Championships. Yet, Cheong Jun Hoong feels the win is now history and has pledged to keep the medals coming. The 27-year-old says she will start from scratch and build herself up to become a champion again. > See Page 3 for reports by TAN MING WAI

Hero's welcome: Fans sharing in Jun Hoong's win when the diver arrived at KL International Airport. — GLENN GUAN/The Star