MALAYSIA created history on the final day of the Wushu World Championships in Kazan, Russia.

Phoon Eyin, Loh Ying Ting and Tan Cheong Min recorded a significant first for the country by claiming the women's duilian (duel) gold medal on Tuesday.

The Malaysian trio put up an intense display to top the discipline with a score of 9.64 points.

Lucy Lee and Mia Tian of the United States took the silver with 9.22 points while Macau's Yi Li and Cho Man Sou finished third on 9.20.

It was the first time Malaysia bagged gold in the duilian discipline since the inception of the world meet in 1991.

The previous best was silver achieved by Chai Fong Wei and Phoon Eyin at the 2015 Jakarta edition.

It has been an inspiring debut for Cheong Min in Kazan as she will return to Kuala Lumpur with three medals.

Earlier, the 18-year-old took silver in the nandao (southern broadsword) event and bronze in the nangun (southern staff).

Our athletes are not used to competing in cold weather as the last few world meets were in Asia. I did not set a target as we had just finished the KL Sea Games. I am happy they gave their best shot to be on the podium.

LIM YEW FAI
National wushu coach

"Initially, I thought I would not compete in the world meet. I was very excited when my name was on the list.

"Frankly, I did not expect medals here. I treated the meet as an opportunity to learn from the best wushu exponents in the world," said Cheong Min, who won gold medals in last year's World Junior Championships in Bulgaria.

Malaysia ended the five-day competition with two gold, three silver and three bronze.

China were crowned the overall champions with a haul of eight gold and eight bronze medals.

Wong Weng Son delivered the first gold for Malaysia in the men's jianshu (sword) on Sunday.

Coach Lim Yew Fai said his athletes managed to overcome the cold weather to finish on the podium.

"Our athletes are not used to competing in cold weather as the last few world meets were in Asia.

"I did not set a target as we had just finished the KL Sea Games. I am happy they gave their best shot to be on the podium," said Yew Fai.

The medallists:

Gold — Wong Weng Son (men's jianshu), Phoon Eyin, Loh Ying Ting, Tan Cheong Min (women's duilian).

Silver — Wong Weng Son (men's qiangshu), Ho Mun Hua (men's nangun), Tan Cheong Min (women's nandao).

Bronze — Yeap Wai Kin (men's qiangshu and jianshu).
