

In Farah Malaysia trust

NATIONAL women's hockey goalkeeper Farah Ayuni Yahya is slowly becoming a household name in Asia.

The policewoman was instrumental in Malaysia's fourth place finish at the recent Asian Champions Trophy (ACT) in Donghae, South Korea.

Farah was named the best goalkeeper in the tournament.

Coach K. Dharmaraj hopes Farah will be at her best again for the Jakarta Asian Games in August.

The Asian Games will involve Indonesia, Malaysia, South Korea, Japan, China, India, Thailand, Hong Kong, Taiwan and Kazakhstan.

The mission in Jakarta is to win a bronze, a feat last achieved at the 1982 New Delhi Games.

"Farah has always been an asset for Malaysia as she is fearless.

"We hope she will continue her fine form at the Asian Games.
