

Prisons officer fulfils late mother's dream

THE Raub, Pahang born mother of three is the DCP of the Kajang Prison complex.

Prisons Department deputy commissioner S. Kausalya Devi has fulfilled her late mother's dream by earning a doctorate, reported Makkal Osai.

Having completed her primary and secondary studies in Raub, Pahang, the 56-year-old earned her diploma, bachelor's, and master's degrees in Universiti Putra Malaysia, as well as completed her doctorate studies in Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia.

Her work at the Kajang Prison is related to the rehabilitation of prisoners to help them achieve a better future, and she intends to work with the prisons department and higher officials to implement her findings in her research, said Kausalya.

She credited her success to the support of her husband, lawyer R. Murugan and their three children.
